Official Form 106C

Schedule C: The Property You Claim as Exempt

4/16

Be as complete and accurate as possible. If two married people are filing together, both are equally responsible for supplying correct information. Using the property you listed on Schedule A/B: Property (Official Form 106A/B) as your source, list the property that you claim as exempt. If more space is needed, fill out and attach to this page as many copies of Part 2: Additional Page as necessary. On the top of any additional pages, write your name and case number (if known).

For each item of property you claim as exempt, you must specify the amount of the exemption you claim. One way of doing so is to state a specific dollar amount as exempt. Alternatively, you may claim the full fair market value of the property being exempted up to the amount of any applicable statutory limit. Some exemptions—such as those for health aids, rights to receive certain benefits, and tax-exempt retirement funds—may be unlimited in dollar amount. However, if you claim an exemption of 100% of fair market value under a law that limits the exemption to a particular dollar amount and the value of the property is determined to exceed that amount, your exemption would be limited to the applicable statutory amount.

Debtor had been remodeling her home, but ran out of money to complete the project. The home is in unfinished condition. Debtor spent around $20,000 on these home repairs last year.

A step payment has been proposed because Debtor plans to participate in the court's pilot loan modification mediation program and hopes to eliminate the arrears that way.

In re: Lidia Alicia Pedone		CASE NO.: CHAPTER 13
Debtor(s).		RIGHTS AND RESPONSIBILITIES AGREEMENT BETWEEN CHAPTER 13 DEBTORS AND THEIR ATTORNEYS

It is important for Debtors who file a chapter 13 bankruptcy case to understand their rights and responsibilities. It is also important for Debtors to know what their attorneys' responsibilities are and to communicate carefully with their attorneys to make the case successful. Debtors also are entitled to expect certain services to be performed by their attorneys. In order to assure that Debtors and their attorneys understand their rights and responsibilities in the bankruptcy process, the following rights and responsibilities have been adopted by the court. The signatures below indicate that the responsibilities outlined in the agreement have been accepted by the Debtors and their attorneys. Nothing in this agreement is intended to modify, enlarge or abridge the rights and responsibilities of a "debt relief agency," as that term is defined and used in 11 U.S.C. § 101, et. seq.

Any attorney retained to represent a Debtor in a chapter 13 case is responsible for representing the Debtor on all matters arising in the case, other than adversary proceedings, unless otherwise ordered by the court. The attorney may not withdraw absent a consensual withdrawal or substitution of counsel or approval by the court of a motion for withdrawal or substitution of counsel considered after notice and a hearing. When appropriate, the attorney may apply to the court for compensation additional to the maximum initial fees set forth below in this agreement.

BEFORE THE CASE IS FILED, THE DEBTOR AGREES TO:

1. Discuss with the attorney the Debtor's objectives in filing the case.
2. Timely provide the attorney with accurate information, financial and otherwise.
3. Timely provide the attorney with all documentation requested by the attorney, including but not limited to, true and correct copies of the following documents*:
 - a. Certificate of Credit Counseling, together with the debt repayment plan, if any, prepared by the nonprofit budget and credit counseling agency that provided individual counseling services to the debtor prior to bankruptcy.
 - b. Proof of income from all sources received during the period of 7 months before the date of the filing of the petition, including but not limited to paycheck stubs, Social Security statements, worker's compensation, rental, pension, disability, and self-employment income, and other payment advices. For businesses, the Debtor should provide report(s) disclosing monthly income and expenses for the period of 6 months before the date of the filing of the petition.
 - c. Proof of ability to pay from any person contributing income to the case.
 - d. Federal and state income tax returns, or transcripts of such returns, for the most recent tax year ending immediately before the commencement of the case.
 - e. Proof of the debtor's identity, including a driver's license, passport, or other document containing a photograph of the debtor.
 - f. A record of the debtor's interest, if any, in an educational individual retirement account or under a qualified State tuition program.
 - g. The name, address and telephone number of any person or state agency to whom the Debtor owes back child or spousal support, the name, address and telephone number of any person or state agency to whom the Debtor makes current child or spousal support payments and all supporting documents for the child or spousal support payments. Examples of supporting documents are a court order, declaration of voluntary support payments, separation agreement, divorce decree and a property settlement agreement.
 - h. Insurance policies owned by the debtor, including homeowner's insurance, business insurance, automobile insurance, fire insurance, flood insurance, earthquake insurance, and credit life insurance.

* All documents submitted to the attorney must be copies as the documents will not be returned to the Debtor.

AFTER THE CASE IS FILED, THE DEBTOR AGREES TO:

1. Timely make the required monthly payments.
2. Comply with the chapter 13 rules and procedures.
3. Keep the chapter 13 trustee and attorney informed of the Debtor's current address and telephone number, and the Debtor's employment status.
4. Sign a payroll deduction order, if one is required.
5. Inform the attorney of any change in the Debtor's marital status, the commencement of any child support or spousal support obligation, or a change in any existing child support or spousal support obligation.
6. Inform the attorney of any wage garnishments or liens or levies on assets that occur or continue after the filing of the case.

7. Contact the attorney promptly if the Debtor loses his or her job, encounters other new or unexpected financial problems, if the Debtor's income increases, or if the Debtor receives, or learns of the right to receive, money or other proceeds of an inheritance or legal action.
8. Timely inform the attorney of any change in a creditor's address or payment amount.
9. Keep records of all mortgage, vehicle and personal property payments made to all secured creditors during the case.
10. Provide the attorney with any federal tax returns or transcripts requested pursuant to 11 U.S.C. § 521(f).
11. Contact the attorney promptly if the Debtor is sued during the case or if the Debtor commences a lawsuit or intends to settle any dispute.
12. Inform the attorney if any tax refunds to which the Debtor is entitled are seized or not received when expected by the Debtor from the IRS or Franchise Tax Board.

20. If not representing the Debtor in adversary proceedings, assist the Debtor in obtaining competent counsel to represent the Debtor in any adversary proceeding filed in the case.

ALLOWANCE AND PAYMENT OF ATTORNEYS' FEES AND COSTS:

The guidelines in this district for payment of costs incurred in performing the services described in bold face type in this agreement ("Included Costs") and attorneys' fees in chapter 13 cases without a detailed fee application provide for the following maximum Included Costs and fees for the services described in this agreement in bold face type (that is, the services described on pages 3 through 5 of this agreement): $6,000 (excluding the petition filing fee and with a maximum of $5,000 to be paid prior to confirmation) in cases where the Debtor is engaged in a business; or $5,000 (excluding the petition filing fee) in all other cases. In this case, the parties agree that the Included Costs (excluding the petition filing fee) and fee for the services described in bold face type in this agreement will be $ 6,000.00.

Other than the initial retainer, the attorney may not receive fees directly from the Debtor prior to confirmation. All other fees due through confirmation shall be paid through the plan unless otherwise ordered by the court.

If the attorney performs tasks on behalf of the Debtor not set forth in bold face, the attorney may apply to the court for additional fees and costs, but such applications will be reviewed by both the chapter 13 trustee and the court. The attorney agrees to charge for such additional services at the rate of $ 475 per hour. The attorney agrees to give the Debtor written notice of any change in the hourly rate prior to rendering additional services. Alternatively, the attorney may charge a reasonable flat fee for some specified service(s). In either event, the attorney shall disclose to the court in the fee application any fees paid or costs reimbursed by the Debtor and the source of those payments. The attorney may receive fees for such additional services directly from the Debtor. Any fees received directly from the Debtor will be deposited in the attorney's trust account until a fee application is approved by the court.

If the Debtor disputes the legal services provided or the fees charged by the attorney, the Debtor may file an objection with the court and request a hearing. Should the representation of the Debtor create a hardship, the attorney may seek a court order allowing the attorney to withdraw from the case. The Debtor may discharge the attorney at any time.

Debtor's Signature. The Debtor's signature below certifies that the Debtor has read, understands and agrees to the best of his or her ability to carry out the terms of this agreement, agrees to the scope of this agreement, and has received a signed copy of this agreement.

Attorney's Signature. The attorney's signature below certifies that before the case was filed the attorney personally met with, counseled, and explained the foregoing matters to the Debtor and verified the number and status of any prior bankruptcy case(s) filed by the Debtor or any related entity, as set forth in Local Bankruptcy Rule 1015-2. This agreement does not constitute the written fee agreement contemplated by the California Business & Professions Code.

Chapter 13 Calculation of Your Disposable Income

To fill out this form, you will need your completed copy of Chapter 13 Statement of Your Current Monthly Income and Calculation of Commitment Period (Official Form 122C-1).

Be as complete and accurate as possible. If two married people are filing together, both are equally responsible for being accurate. If more space is needed, attach a separate sheet to this form, include the line number to which additional information applies. On the top any additional pages, write your name and case number (if known).

Part 1: Calculate Your Deductions from Your Income

The Internal Revenue Service (IRS) issues National and Local Standards for certain expense amounts. Use these amounts to answer the questions in lines 6-15. To find the IRS standards, go online using the link specified in the separate instructions for this form. This information may also be available at the bankruptcy clerk's office.

Deduct the expense amounts set out in lines 6-15 regardless of your actual expense. In later parts of the form, you will use some of your actual expenses if they are higher than the standards. Do not include any operating expenses that you subtracted from income in lines 5 and 6 of Form 122C-1, and do not deduct any amounts that you subtracted from your spouse's income in line 13 of Form 122C-1.

If your expenses differ from month to month, enter the average expense.

Note: Line numbers 1-4 are not used in this form. These numbers apply to information required by a similar form used in chapter 7 cases.

5. The number of people used in determining your deductions from income

Fill in the number of people who could be claimed as exemptions on your federal income tax return, plus the number of any additional dependents whom you support. This number may be different from the number of people in your household.

National Standards You must use the IRS National Standards to answer the questions in lines 6-7.

6. Food, clothing, and other items: Using the number of people you entered in line 5 and the IRS National Standards, fill in the dollar amount for food, clothing, and other items. $ 1,132.00

The number of people is split into two categories—people who are under 65 and people who are 65 or older—because older people have a higher IRS allowance for health care costs. If your actual expenses are higher than this IRS amount, you may deduct the additional amount on line 22.
